THE LIQUOR QUESTION.

What shall the citizens of the North West do in reference to the liquor traffic?

This is rapidly forcing itself to the front and must shortly become a burning question. So far no organized effort has been put forth at any contest on either side of this question, in these Territories. We have a partial prohibitory law, with which and its workings as at present manifested, no one seems thoroughly satisfied. Some have a prejudice against it because it did not emanate from the electors. We have never had any sympathy with this objection, because when it was first introduced there were no electors, and to-day the electors are very few indeed, the entire white population of this region being considerably below 25,000, and the electors we presume not much over one fourth of that number. We are not averse to the people considering the question, and taking action on the subject. But all things considered we have no reason to complain that the principle of self-government in regard to this question has been so long delayed.

Three courses seem open to us:

1.—PERMIT SYSTEM:

Continuation of the present permit system with such amendments as may the better secure the object contemplated, viz: the least possible evil from the use of alcoholic stimulants. These amendments we conceive should embrace the following points:

1. Instead of throwing the responsibility of issuing permits on the Lieutenant-Governor, let an officer be appointed, who shall be responsible to the Lieut.- Gov. and council for all his acts.

2. The limitation of permits to say two gallons of spirits or five gallons of wine or ale at any one time.

3. The limitation of time so that no one can repeat his permit within three months time.

4. The absolute return of every permit before another can be granted to anyone.

5. The right of a husband or wife or son or daughter; to forbid the granting of a permit under oath of himself or herself and one other responsible witness who must be an elector, that the person has abused his permit by excessive drinking.

6. The refusal of a permit to any one who either gives or sells any liquor to any one not a member of his own family, for six months after proof shall have been given that the offense has been committed.

II.—TOTAL PROHIBITION:

The second proposition is to almost entirely forbid the manufacture, importation or sale of all intoxicants except for medical and mechanical purposes. This should provide for a license to duly qualified chemists to sell, for these purposes only, spirituous and malt liquor.

1. These sales to be by certificate of licensed medical practitioners—who shall receive a small fee, say 25 cents for each certificate.

2. All sales to be entered in a book setting forth kind of liquor sold, quantity, price and for what purpose, together with the date of sale and name of physician, and such book to be for inspection at any time by any ratepayer, and annual returns in full made to the Lieutenant-Governor.

3. If any prefer to send for intoxicants, for those purposes only, outside the Territories. Then they shall state for what object they are needed and on sending certificate of physician to the Lieutenant-Governor shall obtain a permit to import, but only in a specified and limited quantity, for which a proper fee shall be charged. Then in these cases an entry shall be made in a book kept for inspection at the post office where the person's name matter is usually addressed for him.

III.—LICENSE SYSTEM:

The other remaining choice is the licensing of one or two persons to sell, in each case of population and "the charging of a proper license therefor.

1. In this case it is proposed to charge a high license fee, say $300 in a city and $200 in a town.

2. Such a law to be surrounded with every possible provision to prevent drunkenness and vice among the people, and the provision for due execution of the law.

We cannot discuss at length the relative value of these several propositions in a single article. But just take our stand fairly and squarely, and come out in favor of the second. We believe that out and out prohibition will be more easily carried and enforced than the present system. If this should not be the judgment of the people, then we favor amending the present system as indicated, and if these fail we shall use our best endeavor to secure as stringent a license law and one as easily enforced, as can be possible. But long may the day be distant when the progressive, independent, manly, resident of this Northwest shall fall back upon the system which has made the drinking customs of England a shame in the eyes of the world and where large strides are now made towards abstinence and prohibition.
What has induced the electors of the United States and Canada ever to seek for Prohibition? simply the failure of the license law, and yet the desire to have good license law is apparent from the fact that more amendments stand on unbroken Parliamentary records on this subject than any other that has engaged the attention of either nation. Shall we then go back and try a measure that has been weighed in the balance and found wanting?

—That's my uncle over there," said fast young man to his fast companion.
"We're pretty near broke, and I'll strike him for a raise. He won't go back on me. Bet you the drinks'll strike him for a ten cent gratuity. The bet's made and the young man struck his uncle. A few conversations ensued till the young man said, "I'll give you fifteen dollars with change and some bills in his hands. " "I told you I'd make it on a roulette with this." Then his companion avowed his treachery, and then there were only two one-dollar notes—the man didn't get his change, did he?" "No." —Yes, I did, replied the nephew, as he took the money and went out to buy a bottle of beer.

STOPPING PAPERS.

In times of political excitement it is common for men who become disgusted with the playful attacks made on the party with which they associate to stop their papers, and by doing so they think they have inflicted an injury by which they are fully revenged. The loss to the publishers, in such cases, amounts to only a matter of a few cents for each retiring subscriber and is never noticed, felt or remembered by the journalist, while the injury which the indignant discontinuer inflicts on himself and his family by his mistaken zeal would in many cases supply him with the newspaper which he rejects for the remainder of his life and put a considerable sum of money in his pocket besides.

In a large district where only one paper is published it will pay no man to be without it and sometimes arousing instances take place where want of knowledge, which the district paper would give most provoking advantage is taken of the man who is ignorant and sometimes a serious loss is suffered.

During about twenty years' experience in a printing office a number of these cases have come under notice. In this country a few years ago a hard working woman and her children had a remarkably fine field of potatoes. Owing to careful culture and a favorable position the potatoes were much earlier than in other fields or farms in the district.
The railway had just approached and was within a few miles of the place potatoes were wanted at Winnipeg; a city dealer inserted an advertisement in the paper nearest the end of the track, but the good man of the house in a fit of political indignation had stopped his paper and consequently neither he nor his family knew of what was wanted at Winnipeg; a —Mr. Justice Richardson accompanied by Mr. Dixie Watson, clerk of the Supreme Court, held a sitting in this town on Saturday last, to hear a petition presented to his Lordship, by Mr. J. J. Kates, against the trustees of the McLean school district No. 61 under the section of the school Ordinance of 1855, praying for disorganization of that school district on the ground of failure to employ a teacher for at least three months in each full year after organization. Mr. Leslie Gordon appeared for the petitioner, and Mr. R. Dundas Strong for the school trustees. Before going into the merits of the case Mr. Justice Richardson expressed his opinion, that he had no jurisdiction to try the petition as a Scindinary magistrate. The Dominion Act which vested the powers and authority of the Scindinary magistrates of the Northwest Territories, in the Judges of the Supreme Court, not having apparently continued such power and authority, as were conferred on them by the Ordinance of the Northwest Territories. The petition was ordered to stand over to the 20th inst., to give petitioner's Counsel an opportunity of satisfying his Lordship on this preliminary objection, failing which the petition will be dismissed.

This is a matter of sufficient importance to engage the attention of the members of the Northwest Council at their ensuing Session.

MOOSOMIN.

A meeting of the leading citizens of Moosomin and farmers of the surrounding district was held to-day to hear the report of Mr. W. D. Perley, M.P. who has secured a large representation of the Press of the Eastern provinces to our exhibitions. Mr. Perley explained at length the course he had pursued in securing passes and communicating with newspaper men irrespective of their politics. He laid on the table communications from Messrs. Van Horne and Schrieber expressing their approval of the scheme and promising their co-operation. He also tabled the replies of eighteen of the leading papers promising to send representatives and said he expected to hear from others. The Minister of Agriculture and also Profs. Saunders and Sheldon are expected.

Mr. Perley was highly complimented upon the success of his undertaking and his scheme heartily endorsed by the meeting. The greatest unanimity and enthusiasm prevailed. A vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Perley, and various committees were appointed. It was decided to give a banquet and to present addresses.

Mr. Perley in conclusion expressed his gratification with the manner in which his efforts were being seconded by the people. He hoped the plan, which he had formulated for the removal of false impressions and prejudices which might exist in the east with reference to our country, would prove a success and a benefit to the constituency which had honored him with a seat in the Canadian parliament.

The committees are now at work and will spare no pains in bringing matters to a successful issue.—Moosomin, Sept. 10th, 1887.

We your committee beg to report that owing to the prevalence of fever in the town of Qu'Appelle, we would recommend the adoption of a stringent by-law to suppress nuisance and enforce cleanliness of yards and premises. We have also to report a balance due A. C. Paterson for his services of clerk for the period of one month and would recommend that he be allowed the sum of $12 for such service, from which has to be deducted the sum of $6 being sheriff fees paid by the council for copies of the list of back taxes, which Mr. Paterson had apparently omitted to make and file in his office as required by the Ordinance.

As the treasurer's statement shows the balance at credit of general fund to be only $4.14, we would recommend that the chairman be authorized by by-law to borrow the sum of $15 by promissory note of the municipality for the period of two months, all of which is respectfully submitted. Report adopted.
